THE MONTHLY MUSICAL RECORD, VOL. 1 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (HARDBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Monthly Musical Record, Vol. 1 The interest which of late years has been increasingly manifested by musicians and the public in the compositions of Franz Schubert - an interest which is chiefly owing to the exertions of the directors of the Crystal Palace Concerts, who have introduced many of his finest works to the English public for the first time - renders any apology for the subject of these articles superfluous, more especially as the works to be noticed are mostly inaccessible to the admirers of their author, from the fact of their being published only in separate parts. The scoring of the masses from these parts has been to me a labour of love, and I believe I shall be able to show that Schubert is not less distinguished as a sacred composer than as the author of the songs which first established his reputation, or of the orchestral and chamber music which has since so largely added to his renown. There exist six masses by Schubert; of these, however, only five are at present published in any form. It is much to be hoped that some enterprising German publisher will think it worth while to engrave the mass in A flat, which still exists only in manuscript, as it dates from the period of the ripest development of its composer s genius. It was written in 1822 - about the time of the B minor symphony - and is considered by those who know it to be among the finest of its author s works. The so-called Deutsche Messe, composed in the year 1827, is not properly a mass at all, but merely a collection of short part songs...
