Nan Lambert will do anything to land a better situation for her mother and herself. So when the chance to become a Mail Order Bride appears, she grabs it. She will go west, get settled, and then send for her mother. On the train, a charming stranger enters her compartment. She discovers that he s her fiance s cousin, checking her out, so to speak. When they both arrive in Rose Valley, Nan meets her fiance. But something is wrong. Emit is distant, stand-offish, and not at all the way he was in his letters. He grinds ahead with their wedding plans, and Nan squelches her doubts. When a runaway wagon nearly kills a woman, Nan discovers the truth about her fiance. With nowhere to go and her future in ruins, she takes the job of housekeeper. But her boss just happens to be Emit s cousin, the same man from the train, and he has other ideas. Will Nan land on her feet? Will she ever be able to bring her mother west to join her?.
