The object of the Nursery shall be to provide, with a reasonable charge, shelter and care for the children of working women during the hours when they are employed elsewhere than in their homes. --Constitution of the Day Nursery of Grace Church. Such is the object of our work, and it has been successfully carried out during the past year. While the aggregate number of attendances during the year has been 12,782, the average daily attendance of children has been fifty-five, which is less than that of former years, owing mainly to the fact that in January last the Board of Health of the City of New York imposed new and more rigid inspection and regulations for institutions of this character; among other things, requiring that the apartments should have a certain amount of air space for each occupant thereof, thereby reducing the maximum capacity of the Nursery from ninety to seventy-five children, or, fifty in the Kindergarten, and twentyfive in the Babies Nursery. The requisite permit was granted...
