

Uncertain Grace

By Rebecca LIV Wee

Copper Canyon Press. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Uncertain Grace, Rebecca LIV Wee, Winner of the 2000 Hayden Carruth Award for New and Emerging Poets. Rebecca Wee's award-winning debut is a moody and lyrical mosaic where the reader is presented multiple and simultaneous points of reality. As line after line gathers details from the world, Wee's poems build in momentum, give voice to the silenced, and explore the poet's impulse to create art that transcends suffering. Rebecca Wee is a professor of creative writing at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. A former editor of "The Minnesota Review," she earned her MFA from George Mason University and has received several awards for her poetry. Pont des Arts She's bent in a posture of anguish or prayer in a spot of city filth. Head down, a stained knit cap with a few coins on the ground beside her, and her pliant child, a shadow. Someone veers past with a friend in a clamor of rings and scarves. A pretty child skips after them, scattering pigeons. The mothers miss how their daughters' eyes catch them--the wary, openmouthed stares. A terrible knowledge passes between them, the bridge rippling under their feet, before the polished child rushes past but looks back at the one...
