Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Wonderful Story of Illinois: A Pageant A prelude of wind instruments is played swelling out in mighty strains. Out of the darkness there comes a softly lighted woodland scene. There are no set arrangements of foliage or flower, but the effect is as Nature like as possible. On the stage are grouped three figures of noble bearing representing Earth, Water, and Fire. They are contending as to which one has the the greatest power. Earth wears robes of green with touches of palest gold. There is a golden crown on her head. Water is clad in blue of varying pale shades, long white hair and beard gleam forth, there is a crystal crown on his head, crystal on his gown, while in his hand is a staff of silver. Fire is dressed in a robe suggesting the color of flames verging from deep reddish orange to the palest shade of yellowish white. The use of several thin floating materials will suggest this better than one heavy one. A crown of light is on her...

Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
