

Eros and the Enemies: Beauty and Brutality of 21st Century Love (Paperback)

By Deborah Blake

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Beauty and Brutality of 21st Century Love! The author explores the complexities of love and relationship in a collection of short stories, stage play screen play. She takes you on the wild ride through love and its many shapes and forms. There are threads of connection and contrast running through these stories. There are stories of sensibility, delineated, from Jason's attempt to stop Eva from killing a man, to the shocking death of Teresa. It is a brilliant fusion of love, sex, death, and landscape. They pack together comedy and tragedy, elegance and the grotesque. An exploration of our strength of will and the lessons we hope to learn. Enjoy the ride! Deborah Blake has been writing since teen-hood. She is a published poet and also writes in other forms, which she beautifully expresses in this collection of writings. She resides in southern California.
