Burr Johnson, Governor of the Society. It has been delayed, not only on account of many members of our Society being engaged in war work, but also in consequence of the few meetings that have been held since that time. Cards of invitation were sent to the Chief of Staff and each officer of the General Staff, about seventy in all, most of whom accepted. The Secretary of War was also invited to be present but could not do so on account of a previous engagement. A patriotic feature of the meeting that was held preceding the reception was the decision to send a sum to our soldiers abroad to be expended as might be seen fit. Pursuant to this action, the following resolution was unanimously adopted: Be it resolved by the Society: That at the meetings of the Society during the period of the war, the serving of refreshments shall be omitted and the amount usually expended thereon shall be sent to General John L. Pershing, Commander of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, to be expended by him for the benefit of American soldiers, as in his discretion he shall see fit and...
