Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Winner, The Loser is an autobiographical account of the life of Gary Lee Vincent at age 21. Written as a series of memoirs, Gary explores the hopes and fears of seven interesting subjects and what he learned from personal experience in each of them. From money to morality, from music to love, from academics to politics, this book is a must read for anyone wondering about these issues and how a 21 year old faces the world as a young adult. The Winner, The Loser gives a glimpse into the soul of Gary, a Renaissance Man, before making it in the world. Many today know Gary from his musical releases or as a real estate guru, however most do not know how it all started. The Winner, The Loser, a manifesto of life s ups and downs, was written by Gary in 1996 as a personal diary and thoughts of his life up to that point. It gives you a glimpse at what it was like to win and to loose and to offers opinions as to how to keep going in spite of the failures that life throws at you.
