Excerpt from Foods and Food Control, Vol. 8: Revised to July 1, 1905; Laws of Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, and Wyoming No prosecutions have yet been made under the provisions of the pure-food law, as it was deemed best to publish the first bulletin and give the merchants and consumers an opportunity to learn what the law is and what rulings and standards have been adopted before putting it in full operation. Already, however, the law is having an excellent effect, as many letters have been received in regard to labeling and branding, discussing what will and will not be allowed to be sold in this State. There is a decided disposition manifested to comply with the law, and the good effects are being seen. Many of the old laws passed-prior to the general food law of 1900 should be repealed, as they tend to much confusion.
