Here is a fantasy novel for children and for the child at heart, for anyone who has ever felt the pangs of wanderlust, who has ever heard the far-off call of the horizon, and who longs to answer it. On a chill night when the pale beams of the harvest moon keep him awake, a boy named Fritz sneaks away from his parents home and passes over the horizon. A restless longing without object urges him on, through the wild wood, over mountains, under ground, beyond the moon itself to lands like no other. Beautiful maidens, fierce queens, horrifying monsters, and an ancient evil await him on his journey. But he must face them all to save the Lands Beyond the Moon, and his very soul! In the tradition of George MacDonald and C.S. Lewis, embark on a spiritual journey and experience all the wonder of another world!.
